PREAMBLE

In recognition of the importance of exchanges in the domains of teaching and research, as well as the special opportunities provided by strengthening contacts between faculty members and students at the two institutions, Zhongnan University of Economics and Law (hereinafter referred to as ZUEL) and the University of Sarajevo (hereinafter referred to as SU) are signing the following agreement in the field of academic cooperation.

Article 1.

The goal of this agreement is to encourage exchanges between the ZUEL and the SU, in all academic fields represented at both Universities.

Article 2.

The cooperation between the two respective institutions should specifically promote the following activities:

- Mutual exchange and collaboration of professors, researchers, students and other staff at both the undergraduate and post-graduate levels;
- Organization of summer universities, seminars and other forms of exchange of knowledge by both parties;
- Exchange of literature, textbooks and university publications;
- Realization of mutual projects;
- Exchange of experiences and mutual programs in the field of information systems and communications,
- Exchange of administrative staff with the goal of gaining the necessary experiences and changes.
- And other forms of cooperation aimed to be mutually beneficial for both participants.

Article 3.

Both Universities will at least once a year agree upon the concrete forms and fields of cooperation. These collaborative programs can be changed or amendment by written agreement signed by both parties.

Article 4.

Collaborative activities will be reviewed every year.

Article 5.

The present agreement will be signed as an ongoing agreement with no set time frame.

Article 6.

The agreement will begin at the date of the final signature by both Universities.

Article 7.

Each University has the right to terminate the present document in written form within a year of the end of signing of the current agreement.

Article 8.

This agreement is written in English. Each University will receive one copy.
