MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE EUROPEAN PUBLIC LAW ORGANIZATION

AND

THE FACULTY OF LAW OF THE SARAJEVO UNIVERSITY

The European Public Law Organization (thereafter mentioned as EPLO) and the University of Sarajevo / Faculty of Law (thereafter mentioned as the University of Sarajevo), sharing the same values for the promotion of knowledge and human capacities through education and training, as well as the spirit of international cooperation for a better understanding of the peoples of Europe and beyond, and a strong belief in the results which can be achieved by a common action, have agreed and decided the following:

Article I
Cooperation in educational and training activities

1. The EPLO and the University of Sarajevo shall organize together educational and training activities for civil servants, students and every interested party, according to specific priorities and actions which shall be commonly elaborated and decided upon by both parties.

2. In general, the projects shall be accompanied by a budget foreseeing the relevant costs, upon common agreement, and how they will be met.

3. To that effect, the two parties express their intention to prepare together on an annual basis a program of activities and projects.

Article II
Other common initiatives and activities

The EPLO and the University of Sarajevo shall organize together other activities of all kinds which fall under the scope of each, and which shall be decided upon by the parties and budgeted accordingly.

Article III
Miscellaneous - Final Clause

1. The EPLO shall do its best to make this new partnership widely known.

2. This Memorandum of Understanding expresses the good will of the parties and is not enforceable, as is the case for any one of its clauses.
