

INTERUNIVERSITY COOPERATION AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF SARAJEVO AND THE UNIVERSITY OF BARCELONA

The first party, the University of Barcelona, represented by the Rector Dr. Antonio Caparrós, by virtue of the powers which his position confer upon him.

The second party, the University of Sarajevo, represented by the Rector Dr. Faruk Seleskovic, by virtue of the powers which his position confer upon him.

Following the mutual presentation of this agreement to the authorities and according to ordinances in effect in the respective states,

And for the purpose of improving the necessary conditions for freedom and equality of persons and for the respect of human rights and the defence of peace,

Agree the following:

Article 1

The two institutions will combine their efforts and coordinate their activities, for the purpose of developing cooperation in educational, scientific and research fields, and cultural relations between the two universities.

Article 2

Cooperation between the two universities may consist in:

- a) reciprocal exchange of teachers, researchers and students for periods of short, medium and long duration.
- b) reciprocal exchange of students
- c) support to the activities carried out by the students associations.

Article 3

Special attention will be paid to cooperation in the following areas:

1) Regarding teachers, the Universities promise:

- to facilitate the participation of teachers, researchers and technicians in education and research programmes
- to encourage direct contacts of a scientific character between the Sections, Departments and Institutes of these Universities, and also between researchers

2) With regard to students, the Universities promise:

- to accept students/researchers from the other University within the limits jointly agreed
- that the students admitted have the same rights and responsibilities as a student of equivalent level in the accepting University

Article 4

The signatory universities will try to provide the means necessary in their budget for the operation of this agreement. In particular, travelling and accomodation expenses for the teachers and researchers will be covered on reciprocal basis: the University of origin will cover travel expenses and the accepting University will provide accomodation expenses.

Article 5

This agreement will come into effect on the day it is signed, will be valid for four years and will be renewable for periods of three years, beginning from 1 july following the date of approval.

This agreement may be revoked upon termination, as well as at the end of each university year, on the condition that six months notice is given. If not, it will be renewed by tacit agreement.

In whatever case, termination of the agreement will no represent any obstacle for those students, researchers and teachers affected, with respect to the continuation of their studies, accomodation and research projects in progress.
