In case of a change in coordinator, each university must inform the other of this change as soon as it takes place.

ARTICLES

Article 1: Areas of Interest

Cooperation between University of Sarajevo (UNSA) and PSUT will include the following areas of study:

- a. Science
- b. Engineering
- c. Information Technology/Computer Science
- d. Economics/Business
- e. Social Sciences

The areas of cooperation are not limited to those mentioned above and are open to modification or expansion after mutual discussion and agreement.

Article 2: Activities and Cooperation

1. Faculty Exchange

Both universities may exchange academic faculty and staff for purposes of teaching, sabbaticals, conducting or organizing seminars on topics of mutual interest, and collaboration in individual or joint research programs.

The number of faculty members exchanged annually and the specific conditions related to such an exchange will be determined through communication and mutual agreement between both universities. Any individual agreement reached will be appended to this agreement.

Each university will be responsible for the travel, housing, and other expenses of its own faculty. The host institution will assist in locating suitable accommodation for incoming guest faculty whenever possible.

2. Student Exchange

- Students of each university will be encouraged to visit the other to participate in study programs, training and summer programs, and other student activities.
- The length of student exchanges will preferably be one semester (Fall or Spring) or two semesters (Fall and Spring), or any other mutually acceptable duration.
- Students from each university, when applying for admission under this exchange program, will adhere to the application process of the host university. Student selection will be based on meeting the requirements of the courses/programs applied for.
- PSUT requirements for exchange students include: The applicant's academic transcript and a letter of recommendation from the supervisor.

- Tuition payment or waiver will be decided upon on a case by case basis. However, students will be responsible for their personal expenses including travel, housing, meals, text books, health insurance, and any other expense.
- Both institutions will assist incoming students to find suitable accommodation during their stay.

3. Collaborative Projects

Collaboration in research, study, joint hosting and organization of seminars, conferences and workshops, and any other academic activities related to the areas mentioned in Article 1 of this agreement, will be encouraged.

4. Scholarships

Scholarships for students of higher studies may be granted by each university to the other after negotiations and/or on a reciprocal basis. Terms and conditions for scholarships, after agreement between both universities will be recorded in writing, signed, and appended to this MOU.

Article 3: Services

Visiting faculty or students will have access to the same basic services and facilities normally received by faculty and students at the host university including use of the library, web access, and any other convenience that would support and strengthen cooperative activities.

Article 4: Financial Arrangements

Any financial arrangement not already stated in the articles above, will be discussed and agreed upon, on a case-by-case basis by both universities, until a mutually acceptable framework is set-up before an academic activity, or faculty or student exchange takes place.

Article 5: Modifications and Validity

- Modifications, if necessary, can be made in writing with a notice period of 3 months, after mutual agreement. Such modifications will be appended to this agreement.
