
Partnership Agreement

between the University of Sarajevo

and

the University of Graz

The University of Sarajevo and the University of Graz have cooperated on numerous levels for many years. Recognizing the benefits to be gained by both institutions through the exchange of persons, resources and information and the enhanced level of multicultural understanding that ensues from such cooperation, the University of Sarajevo and the University of Graz hereby agree to sign the following Partnership Agreement in order to renew the existing Agreements:

Article 1

The objective of this Agreement is to encourage and support co-operation between the University of Sarajevo and the University of Graz in all fields represented by both universities.

Article 2

The co-operation between the two universities may include the following activities:

- mutual linkages and exchange of students, faculty, and staff
- summer schools, seminars and other activities to exchange knowledge
- exchange of scientific and scholarly literature, textbooks and other university publications
- organising joint research projects, joint publications and joint programmes
- exchange of experience
- co-operation within frameworks like TEMPUS and other European programs;

Article 3

The details of each activity developed under this agreement (projects, duration, conditions, financing, distribution of tasks, conditions for admission etc.) will be specified and agreed upon in writing before the respective activity takes place. The details of recurring forms of cooperation will be specified in annexes to this agreement.

Article 4

This Agreement takes effect upon ratification by the representatives of their universities, Rector or Vice Rector, and will be valid for five years.
After a positive assessment, the agreement can be extended for a further three-year period.

The Agreement may be terminated upon written notice by either party, but only after ongoing activities have been completed.

Article 5

This Agreement has been drawn in two copies in English, each to be considered originals, each university to keep one original.

Any amendment to this Agreement may be made on the exchange of letters between the two parties.
