I Subject of the Agreement:

This Agreement establishes the framework for institutional cooperation between the Parties, and shall facilitate further development and consideration of specific cooperation programmes of mutual interest for both Parties.

Cooperation shall be implemented through, but may not be limited to, the following activities:

- to foster networking and mutual exchange of research personnel, teachers, postdocs, students and other associates for visits and knowledge transfer;
- to promote and conduct joint educational, training programs and research activities, such as educational programs of doctoral and postdoctoral studies and projects;
- to promote joint participation and applying for funds designated for research, technology transfer activities, and education;
- to jointly organise conferences, symposia, congresses, seminars, courses, summer schools, workshops and other meetings of mutual interest;
- to exchange professional literature, textbooks, and other university or research publications;
- to undertake other activities of mutual interest.

In the implementation of specific cooperative programs, a written agreement covering all relevant aspects including funding and other obligations to be undertaken by each party shall be negotiated, mutually agreed, and formalized in writing, prior to the commencement of the programme.

II Coordination and Implementation:

Each institution shall appoint a contact person to coordinate the implementation of this Agreement. Both Parties have committed not to execute activities related to this agreement without previous consultations.

The Parties agree that all financial agreements necessary to implement this Agreement must be negotiated and shall depend upon availability of funds. Neither institution shall have any financial obligation to the other institution based on this Agreement.

Both institutions adhere to Article 2 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and do not discriminate on the basis of race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status.

III Entry into Force, Duration and Termination:

This Agreement shall become effective upon the date of signature by both Parties representatives. It shall be in force for five (5) years and may be renewed by the Parties for a further period.

Amendments and changes shall be possible only in a case of written consent by both Parties and shall be added to this Agreement.

This Agreement may be terminated before the expiry of the five (5) year period only upon the written consent by both Parties. Either party wishing to make changes or terminate the Agreement shall notify the other institution in writing of such intention no later than six (6) months before the suggested changes or termination should come into effect. The Agreement cannot be terminated if this action shall jeopardize the implementation of any of the agreed activities, or before the deadline set for completion of such activities.

IV Language and Dispute Resolution:

The Agreement shall be drawn up and signed in two (2) copies, in English language, and signed by the authorised representatives of the Parties. Each party shall receive one signed copy of the Agreement.

The Parties shall settle any difference concerning this Agreement amicably. Where this is not possible, the Parties shall resort to arbitration in accordance with a procedure to be specified by the Parties. Notwithstanding reference of the dispute to arbitration, the Parties shall continue to perform their obligations under this Agreement.
