Pozivno pismo
za međunarodni naučni skup
ČETVRTI SIMPOZIJ O BOSANSKOM JEZIKU

(Sarajevo, 12–13. 11. 2026)

Poštovane kolegice i kolege, imamo čast i zadovoljstvo pozvati vas da učestvujete na međunarodnom naučnom skupu Četvrti simpozij o bosanskom jeziku, koji će se održati 12. i 13. novembra 2026. godine u Sarajevu.

Četvrti naučni skup ove vrste predstavlja nastavak ideje koju je Institut za jezik započeo još 1998. godine organizacijom prvog Simpozija o bosanskom jeziku, što je rezultiralo zaključcima koji su značajno doprinijeli daljnjem razvoju lingvističke bosnistike, a to i jest glavna svrha ovakvih naučnih susreta.

Međunarodni naučni skup Četvrti simpozij o bosanskom jeziku bavit će se sljedećim glavnim temama:

1. Savremeni pristupi u proučavanju bosanskog i drugih slavenskih jezika
2. Historija jezika u bosnistici i slavistici
3. Bosanski jezik i obrazovanje u Bosni i Hercegovini i inostranstvu

Radni jezici Simpozija: bosanski i ostali slavenski jezici te engleski jezik.

Naslov referata i rezime (do 1 kartice – 1.800 znakova) treba dostaviti do 30. 9. 2026. na adresu: javnost@izj.unsa.ba.

Prije održavanja Simpozija bit će objavljena knjiga sažetaka.

Izlaganja na Simpoziju, nakon što kao pisani radovi budu recenzirani, bit će naknadno objavljena u zborniku radova.

Kotizacija za učešće se ne plaća.

Molimo vas da ovu obavijest prosljedite svojim saradnicima i kolegama.

S poštovanjem!

Call for Papers

FOURTH SYMPOSIUM ON THE BOSNIAN LANGUAGE

(Sarajevo, 12–13 November 2026)

Dear Colleagues,

It is our great honour and pleasure to invite you to participate in the international scientific conference Fourth Symposium on the Bosnian Language, which will be held on 12 and 13 November 2026 in Sarajevo.

The fourth scientific gathering of this kind represents a continuation of the initiative launched by the Language Institute in 1998 through the organization of the first Symposium on the Bosnian Language. The conclusions reached at that symposium significantly contributed to the further development of Bosnian linguistics, which remains the primary purpose of such scholarly meetings.

The international scientific conference Fourth Symposium on the Bosnian Language will address the following main topics:

1. Contemporary Approaches to the Study of the Bosnian Language and Other Slavic Languages
2. Language History in Bosnian and Slavic Studies
3. The Bosnian Language and Education in Bosnia and Herzegovina and Abroad

The working languages of the Symposium are Bosnian and other Slavic languages, as well as English.

The title and abstract of the paper (up to one page – 1,800 characters) should be submitted no later than 30 September 2026 to the following email address: javnost@izj.unsa.ba.

A book of abstracts will be published prior to the Symposium.

Presentations delivered at the Symposium, following peer review and submission in written form, will subsequently be published in the conference proceedings.

There is no conference fee.

We kindly ask you to forward this announcement to your associates and colleagues.

Respectfully,

Organizing Committee

Fourth Symposium on the Bosnian Language
